

Mark T. Herrington

205-948-6320 | markherrington5@gmail.com | www.mherrington.com

---

Summary

Junior level web developer with experience using JavaScript, React.js, HTML, CSS.

Experience working with customers to help develop project vision. Self-taught proficiency with computer troubleshooting. Excellent leadership, communication, and interpersonal skills. Strong visual design instincts.

Skills & Abilities

Coding: JavaScript, React.js, jQuery, HTML, CSS, Bootstrap, React-Bootstrap

Software & Hardware: Experience with OSX and Windows. Have used Git & GitHub for professional, educational, and personal projects. Accustomed to VS Code with some exposure to Atom.

Projects

ReMedy

- Morningside Center site for compiling and presenting oncological alternative uses for common medical treatments.
- React frontend, Salesforce backend

VA Memorandum of Understanding

- Veterans Affairs application that keeps track of project hours to report to the federal government for funding.
- React frontend, Salesforce backend

CTAS

- Keeps track of the various stages of clinical trials.
- React frontend, Salesforce backend

Beckett Letters

- English department application for browsing the metadata of Samuel Beckett's personal correspondences.
- React frontend, Rails backend

Work Experience

Emory University | Software Engineer | July 2019 -

- Specializing in React.js development for the Library and IT Services department.

Education

Georgia Tech | Web Development Boot Camp | Spring 2019 | Atlanta, GA

- Intensive twelve-week boot camp dedicated to designing and building web applications

Rhodes College | Fall 2014 - Spring 2018 | Memphis, TN

- Bachelor of Arts; Major in History, Minor in Religious Studies
- Participated in 2016 European Studies program